ABOUT FREDERICK LAW OMSTEAD:

This is all about Frederick. So who was he anyway? Frederick Law Olmsted (April 26, 1822 – August 28, 1903) was an American landscape architect, journalist, social critic, and public administrator whose architecture firm designed many of the 19th century's most beautiful and recognizable parks, plazas and buildings, including NYC's Central Park. The Olmsteds designed and landscaped several homes and parks in Holyoke including Pulaski Park.
